I) Sikkim: Food for Thought!

Home to glimmering glaciers, beautiful meadows and thousands of varieties of flowers, Sikkim is one destination in India that is on the list of many travellers. The place is famous not only for its beauty but also for its culinary delights. Research about the delectable Sikkim food options to understand the place and its culture better. The use of the locally-sourced ingredients and the many different flavours that wouldn't otherwise be used in the dishes across India makes the Sikkimese food options a delight to savour.

Case Study File: Resistance Against the Company

India's early freedom struggle saw brave rulers who stood up against the British East India Company. Choose any two Indian rulers who actively resisted British control. Prepare a detailed case study file for each ruler covering the following points:

1. Introduction- Brief context of British expansion
2. Individual Case Studies : For Each Ruler Include:
 - * Background – Short Biography and Kingdom. (Who were they? Which region did they rule?)
 - * Causes of Conflict – Why did they resist the British?
 - * Major Events – Describe the key battles or events in their struggle.

- * Maps: Show location of the kingdom and major battles
- * Resistance Strategies – What methods or alliances did they use?
- * Outcome – What was the result of their resistance?
- * Legacy – How are they remembered in history
- * Reflection – What values can we learn from their leadership and courage?

3. Comparative Analysis: Similarities and differences in the two rulers' strategies

4. Conclusion: Impact of early resistance on later freedom struggle/ Your reflection or opinion

Choose any two from the following:

- Tipu Sultan of Mysore
- Rani Chennamma of Kittur
- Maratha Confederacy
- Nawab Sirajuddaulah of Bengal
- You may choose another lesser-known ruler

Note:

- Use A4 size sheets
- Use headings, bullet points, and neat handwriting
- Add printed or hand-drawn maps, pictures
- Organize pages with a cover page, index, bibliography and page numbers.
